Health & Safety policy

Supertouch is a UK-based distributor of personal protective equipment and workwear, operating from our head office and distribution centre near Birmingham. We believe that protecting the health, safety and wellbeing of our employees, contractors, visitors and all others who may be affected by our activities is fundamental to the way we do business.

This policy sets out our approach to managing health and safety across our operations and demonstrates our commitment to providing a safe and healthy working environment. We are committed to preventing work-related injury and ill health, complying with all applicable legal and other requirements, and continually improving our health and safety performance.

- Provide and maintain safe workplaces, equipment and systems of work.
- Identify workplace hazards and assess and control risks arising from our activities.
- Comply with relevant health and safety legislation and industry requirements.
- Promote a positive safety culture in which everyone takes responsibility for their own safety and that of others
- Encourage the reporting of hazards, near misses and incidents and use these opportunities to learn and improve.
- Monitor our health and safety performance and seek further opportunities to enhance our arrangements and reduce risk.
- Ensure the safe handling, storage and movement of products and materials throughout our warehouse and distribution operations.
- Provide appropriate information, instruction, training and supervision to enable employees to work safely and competently

- Support the physical and mental wellbeing of our employees.
- Consult and engage with employees on health and safety matters and encourage active participation in creating a safe working environment.

We expect all employees, contractors and visitors to cooperate with this policy, follow established health and safety procedures, and contribute to maintaining a safe and healthy workplace.

This policy applies to all Supertouch operations and will be reviewed periodically to ensure it remains suitable, effective and aligned with our business activities and legal obligations.
